REMARKS

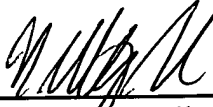

This corrected section is being filed within one-month of the mailing date of the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment, and therefore is timely. No additional fees or extensions of time are believed to be due.

Applicant notes that the only problem identified in the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment was the use of the status identifier “(Amended)” instead of “(Currently Amended)” in the listing of claims. This has been corrected. As noted above, applicant is submitting a corrected “Amendments to the Claims” section of the Amendment filed March 2, 2009, changing the claim identified in certain instances from “(Amended)” to “(Currently Amended).”

It is believed that the amendment is in form for consideration and that the claims are now in condition for allowance.

Respectfully submitted,

JACOBSON HOLMAN PLLC
